

TALK TO SAL

bibic's Support and Advice Line (SAL) is here to support any families who have children and young people with learning difficulties and disabilities, with or without a diagnosis

Parents, guardians and teachers alike, get in touch with SAL. A member of our friendly therapy team will be on hand to talk and offer help, support and advice free of charge*

9am - 5pm
Monday
to
Friday

We can help with:

Answering any questions about the various therapies bibic can offer

Day to day concerns, questions and issues

Signposting other support services

Advice around handling meltdowns

And more...

*Where an inquiry requires a more in-depth response bibic will recommend extra help through Online or face to face assessments which will incur a charge, please ask for details.
